DHA Chaperone Policy

DHA Chaperone Policy

Support is Available: We offer chaperones as part of our commitment to patient safety and excellence in health care delivery.

What Are Chaperones?

Chaperones are staff available to support you during any physical exam, medical visit, or dental visit. They ensure a safe, respectful, and professional environment for patients and providers.

You're Empowered to Ask

Your safety and comfort come first. If you would like a chaperone at any time, please inform a member of the medical team. Health care staff must offer you a chaperone before performing a sensitive exam.

What Does a Chaperone Provide?

Throughout your visit, chaperones help ensure your:

- Privacy during exams and procedures
- Safety by serving as an added layer of support
- Respect throughout the experience

Their role is to help you feel informed, safe, and supported from start to finish.

For questions or assistance, please talk with your medical team or contact the Guthrie AHC Patient Advocate Office: (315) 772-4655. Learn more: DHA.mil/chaperone
